Self-Test

Language questions – NOTE: ONLY ONE ANSWER IS CORRECT!

1. Your new haircut	·
1) looks well	2) is looking v	well 3) has goo	od looks 4) lo	ooks good
2. If he's really gone, yo	ou him.
	2) wouldn't f	ind 3) do not		vould not have ound
3. Where have you	the corpse?
1) lay	2) layed	3) laid	4) la	ain
- j ,		37.4.4	.,
4. If you me	e, I could have the wor	k completed by next	t Thursday.
1) are helping	2) would help	3) had he	lped 4) v	vill help
5. Where would the ph that it is Hemi
	h seem to be about ac	tion (4)	_ but in which in f	act almost nothing happens.
6. In which sentence is nty-one he took over			d of him.
•	e attractive, and it led	•	love with her.
•	t: I'll never be a millior
4) [On the telephon	e:] "It's Paula William'	s calling."
7. Which of the followi
 It was very simple some more. 	e when I was younger	– in case I ran out of	money my father	used to give me ing about is the one, w	ho stole all the mon	ev from the bank.
	exam, we gave him a		,
-	the work will have to		Гuesday.
, ,		•	•
8. The reporters were t	aken out to see a film	on location	on in the desert.
1) having been shot	2) being now	shot 3) being s	hot 4) v	vhile being shot
9. Do you ever go
1) abroad	2) in foreign	climes 3) flying	4) i	n other countries
10. I it as
1) hold suggestion	n 2) regard a	Iternative 3) agree.		consent with
			S	olution
1116. For each word o	-	-	5	.) 1.66
	1) easy	2) ponderous	3) light	4) difficult
The opposite of "heavy	" is "light". Therefore	3) is correct.
11 accortain	1) waver	2) deny	2) forgot	1) dispraya
11. ascertain	1) waver	2) deny	3) forget	4) disprove
12. prompt	1) superfluous	2) unreliable	3) tardy	4) wait
prompt	±/ 3upciliuous	2) WHICHADIC	J, taray	T) Wait

Self-Test				Uni	versity of Regensburg
13. considerate	1) stupid	2) reck	dess 3) fa	st-thinking	4) thoughtless
14. characteristic	1) translucent	2) unu	sual 3) su	illen	4) weak
15. inject	1) throw out	2) extr	act 3) ex	ile	4) dilute
1618. Which dictiona	ry entry fits the	underlined wor	d in the passa	ge?
 16. In Brigadier Reid th British officer to sho people to hone in li to make concave serve or offer up 17. Be careful! I've turn seeming to be read carrying electric of 	ow these days. T ke vultures on the or hollow for consumptioned the switch. I al	They were getting the reputation of the reputation of the period of the	ng ready to dis f a perfectly de 2) cheat or d 4) to drop, to wire. It's live! eething give lig	h him. It neveloce ecent and collefraud o get rid of tht or start b	ver took long for ompetent officer.
40 = 1		surface
18. The detective inspet walked the rest on the second sec		. When he heard	d a noise from	above, he ra	an up two flights and
1) lifts	2) slide	es .	3) sets of sta	irs 4	l) U-shaped tubes
1921. Some words are related to each other 1) Y is used with an	er in different w	•	3) Y is used f		Y. They can be Example: "car door" The second part of the	word, Y, is "doc	or", which is par	t of a car. So t	he word is o	f type 4).
Now analyse the follow	ving:
19. seat belt
20. mountain top
21. writing paper
22. A magnet 1) allures	iron to it. 2) adheres	3) drav	ws	4) drags
23. Don't believe a wor1) into the wood3) down the slipper	-	leading you 2) by the arm 4) up the gard		_ .
2426. For each word	on the left, find	the best equiva	lent in the list	on the right
24. prodigal	 not finding one's way advancing society 			2) spending too much4) being good at an art
25. dissemble	1) pretend	2) cop	y 3) se	parate	4) take apart
26. blandish	1) flatter	2) straightforw	vard 3) ta	steless 4	l) whiten by exposure

Cultural Knowledge and Linguistic Questions – NOTE: MORE THAN ONE ANSWER MAY BE CORRECT!

- 27. The President of the United States of America is formally elected by
 - 1) the House of Representatives
 - 2) the Members of the Smithsonian Institute
 - 3) the Supreme Court
 - 4) the Electoral College
- 28. The Pilgrim Fathers arrived in New England in the year
 - 1) 1620
 - 2) 1776
 - 3) 1861
 - 4) 1941
- 29. Martin Luther King, Jr.
 - 1) gave a speech known as the "I have a dream"-speech
 - 2) led the March on Washington in 1963
 - 3) was the first African American candidate for President
 - 4) was assassinated in 1968
- 30. The Great Gatsby is
 - 1) a novel by F. Scott Fitzgerald
 - 2) a short story by F. Scott Fitzgerald
 - 3) a screenplay by Zelda Fitzgerald
 - 4) a play by Arthur Miller
- 31. Impeachment is a procedure
 - 1) to redraw Congressional districts
 - 2) to produce alcoholic beverages in the South
 - 3) to install church officials
 - 4) to remove government officials and judges from office.
- 32. The Emancipation Proclamation
 - 1) declared segregation in schools to be illegal
 - 2) freed the slaves in the states of the Confederacy
 - 3) gave women the right to vote
 - 4) permitted Hispanic immigrants to become American citizens
- 33. Who said, "Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country"?
 - 1) William J. Clinton
 - 2) Ronald Reagan
 - 3) George W. Bush
 - 4) John F. Kennedy
- 34. "Black Friday" refers to
 - 1) the Massacre at Wounded Knee
 - 2) the Stock Market Crash
 - 3) the assassination of President Kennedy
 - 4) the attack on the World Trade Center

- 35. Name the two sections of the British parliament.
 - 1) Senate and Congress
 - 2) House of Lords and House of Commons
 - 3) Assembly and Congress
 - 4) Inner Temple and Outer Temple
- 36. What is the political status of the United Kingdom?
 - 1) federal republic
 - 2) commonwealth
 - 3) constitutional monarchy
 - 4) parliamentary democracy
- 37. Which of the following newspapers are traditional tabloids?
 - 1) The Times
 - 2) The Independent
 - 3) The Daily Mail
 - 4) The News of the World
- 38. What is the name of Britain's state-funded television and radio corporation?
 - 1) ITV
 - 2) MTV
 - 3) BBC
 - 4) BLT
- 39. In which part of Britain is Britain's highest mountain?
 - 1) England
 - 2) Wales
 - 3) Northern Ireland
 - 4) Scotland
- 40. Which citizens of Britain would normally speak Punjabi?
 - 1) people living in Wales
 - 2) people living in Scotland
 - 3) migrants from India
 - 4) migrants from Africa
- 41. Where do most of the so-called "black" citizens of Britain come from?
 - 1) Africa
 - 2) Australia
 - 3) the Caribbean
 - 4) the U.S.A.
- 42. "Rugby" is
 - 1) a word for a small carpet
 - 2) a famous public school
 - 3) a team game
 - 4) the brand name of a British car
- 43. Which of the following words has a voiced ?
 - 1) three
 - 2) them
 - 3) thanks
 - 4) threat

- 44. Three of the words below are spelled in the American way. Which one is spelled in the British way?
 - 1) color
 - 2) fulfil
 - 3) theatre
 - 4) analyze
- 45. In "Everybody dreams of being famous", "dreams" is what type of word?
 - 1) a noun
 - 2) a verb
 - 3) an adjective
 - 4) an adverb
- 46. Shakespeare's works are written in
 - 1) Old English
 - 2) Middle English
 - 3) Early Modern English
 - 4) Modern English
- 47. What is a "cross-reference" in a dictionary?
 - 1) an advice on usage
 - 2) a note that tells you to look at study pages
 - 3) a note that tells you to look at another entry
 - 4) a symbol that refers to the idiom section of an entry
- 48. In English, future tense can be expressed by
 - 1) modal verbs
 - 2) progressive form
 - 3) relativ clauses
 - 4) prepositions
- 49. In the sentence "The book sells well", the verb is
 - 1) formally passive, but logically active
 - 2) formally active, but logically passive
 - 3) in the present tense, but refers to the past
 - 4) in the simple present, but refers to the progressive
- 50. The words "government", "pork" and "pronounce" were taken over into English from which of the following languages?
 - 1) Old Norse
 - 2) French
 - 3) Gothic
 - 4) German

Essay

Produce a coherent short essay (complete sentences, not key words) on the two aspects listed below. Write at least one page, but not more than two!

- 1. Summarise the major points of the newspaper article below.
- 2. How would studying British and American language, literature, and culture help you to understand the issues raised in it better?

The Blair-Bush Alliance and the British Conservatives

by Al Webb

Washington Times, 22 November 2004

Prime Minister Tony Blair's close alliance with President Bush on Iraq has driven a wedge between the Bush administration and what would seem a natural ally — Britain's opposition Conservative Party, headed by Michael Howard.

The Tory leader, whose criticism of the Iraq war has grown increasingly strident in recent months, has been advised not to bother seeking a meeting with Mr. Bush, according to press reports, and has responded by telling an interviewer he will not take orders from Washington.

The rift has to come as a shock for a party that long basked in the warm relationship between Conservative Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and another Republican president, Ronald Reagan.

From the beginning, Mr. Blair's willingness to defy opposition within his left-leaning Labour Party and support Mr. Bush's war plans in Iraq has put the British Conservatives on the defensive.

The Tories initially supported the war, but became lukewarm as the conflict dragged on, and two months ago, Mr. Howard stepped up his criticism of Mr. Blair's handling of prewar intelligence.

At the White House, Karl Rove, the president's chief political adviser, blew up. According to British press reports, he told Mr. Howard's aides: "You can forget about [Mr. Howard] meeting the president. Don't bother coming" to Washington.

Far from being chastised, Mr. Howard has since fueled the fire.

When Mr. Bush was elected this month to a second term, Mr. Howard pointedly declined to voice any pleasure, saying only that "I made it clear that I could work perfectly well with both President Bush and President [John] Kerry. I don't think it's appropriate to express a view on those elections."

In a major interview with the London Sunday Telegraph, the Conservative leader went further: "I am not going to be told by anyone how to do my job," he said, "and if that displeases those in the White House, that's tough."

"As to whether, as prime minister, that would be a problem for me, well, if Mr. Blair is not there any more, then the White House won't need to be protective of him."

Some political experts suggest there is a method in Mr. Howard's behavior as he looks ahead to a British election next year.

According to one increasingly popular theory, the Conservative leader hopes to capitalize on the voting public's antipathy toward President Bush and its suspicions of Mr. Blair's continuing close relationship with the White House.

In a survey last week for the Independent newspaper, 64 percent of those interviewed said good relations with Britain's European Union partners were more important than those with the United States, while only 25 percent said the relationship with Washington should take priority. [...]